

HOW TO PURCHASE A TRANSCRIPT OF AN ORAL ARGUMENT OR A RECORDING OF AN ORAL ARGUMENT

1 - Transcripts

Any person may request that a transcript of an oral argument be made at his/her expense.

Effective April 1, 2016, Deposition Services, Inc. has exclusive rights to transcribe oral arguments. Persons interested in ordering a transcript from the Court should contact Deposition Services, Inc.:

Deposition Services, Inc.
P.O. Box 1040
Burtonsville, MD 20866
(301) 881-3344

Deposition Services, Inc. will contact the Court and will make arrangements to obtain the documents necessary for the preparation of the transcript. Transcripts will be made as part of an arrangement between the requestor and Deposition Services.

2 - Audio Compact Disc (CD) Recordings

- Effective September 9, 2013, audio recordings of oral arguments became available online free of charge. The audio recordings are available for download on the Court's website (www.cadc.uscourts.gov) by 2:00 P.M. on the same day of the oral argument.

- Audio recordings beginning with the 2007 Term are archived and available on the Court's website.

- A person may request a CD recording of an oral argument. The cost for the CD recording is $32 and payment must be made by check or money order payable to Clerk, U.S. Court of Appeals. Requests must include your name, address, telephone number, case number, case caption, and argument date and be mailed to:
